August 18, 2022

Portland, OR – (August 18, 2022) Best Lawyers in America® released its 2023 listing in which Bullard Law attorneys continue to be recognized for excellence.

Four Bullard Law attorneys are recognized as “Best Lawyers in America,” another three attorneys are recognized in the Best Lawyers “One’s to Watch” category, and one attorney is recognized under both “Best Lawyers in America” and “Lawyer of the Year.”

The attorneys listed as “Best Lawyers” include:

- Richard J. Alli, Jr. – Employment Law (Management) and Labor Law (Management)
- Alan M. Lee – Litigation (Labor and Employment)
- Liani J. Reeves – Employment Law (Management) and Litigation (Labor and Employment)
- Dennis E. Westlind – Employment Law (Management) and Labor Law (Management)

The attorneys listed as “Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch” include:

- Edward Choi – Commercial Litigation and Litigation (Labor and Employment)
- Christine M. Zinter – Employee Benefits (ERISA) Law and Worker’s Compensation Law (Employers)
- Jessica D. Osborne – Labor and Employment (Management) and Litigation (Labor and Employment)

The Best Lawyer’s “One’s to Watch” category recognizes attorneys practicing for less than ten years.

Dennis E. Westlind was recognized as 2023 Best Lawyers “Lawyer of the Year”. He was recognized in the “Labor Law – Management” category. Only one lawyer in each practice area for a particular geographical region is named “Lawyer of the Year,” which makes this a distinguishable honor. Receiving this accolade expresses the amount of respect a lawyer has amongst their peers regarding their abilities, professionalism, and integrity.

First published in 1983, Best Lawyers® has published their list for more than three decades and is regarded as the most reliable, unbiased source of legal referrals. Each year, attorneys are nominated by anyone but themselves for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America listing. Primary sources for the nominations include clients, fellow lawyers, and marketing teams. Once nominations are collected, ballots are generated and distributed to listed lawyers who vote. Voters assess fellow lawyers on a numerical scale regarding how likely they would be to refer a case to the nominated lawyer if they weren’t able to take the case themselves. Lastly, the Best Lawyers editorial staff reviews the votes. By executing this evaluation process, the Best Lawyers in America listings aim to accurately capture the consensus opinion of leading lawyers regarding their colleagues within the same geographical and legal practice area.
